Getting to Edgbaston Priory Club

Car

From M6:

Leave at Junction 6 and follow signs for A38M City Centre and then A38 South West through the Queensway Tunnel. Stay on the A38 (Bristol Road) until the junction with traffic lights for the B4217. Turn right onto the B4217 signposted for Harborne (Priory Road). At the first roundabout take the last exit and then the first right onto Sir Harry's Road. The entrance to the public car park is on the right-hand side.

From M40:

Join M42 (M42 West and M5) and exit at Junction 2. Follow A435 towards Birmingham through Kings Heath and turn left to Edgbaston onto the B4217 (Salisbury Road). Continue on the B4217 past Edgbaston Cricket Ground, straight over the junction with the A441 and then straight over the junction with the A38 onto Priory Road (still the B4217). At the first roundabout on Priory Road take the last exit and then the first right onto Sir Harry's Road. The entrance to the public car park is on the right-hand side.

From M5 South:

Leave at Junction 4 and take A38 through Northfield and Selly Oak. After going through Selly Oak continue on the A38 (Bristol Road) until the junction with traffic lights for the B4217. Turn left here onto the B4217 signposted for Harborne (Priory Road). At the first roundabout take the last exit and then the first right onto Sir Harry's Road. The entrance to the public car park is on the right-hand side.

Bus

Take the 47, 61 or 63 from St. Martin's Queensway (Stop NS3) coming from Birmingham New Street, get off at Sir Harry's Road. From here it is an eight minute walk.

Train

Birmingham is well connected by train, from London and the south and from Liverpool and further north.

Spectators should disembark at Birmingham New Street. Unfortunately, this station is not within walking distance to the venue, but is within a short taxi ride, so please plan ahead and organise transport from Birmingham New Street station to Sir Harry's Road.

Air

Birmingham International Airport (BHX) is the city's gateway to the world. It is easily accessible by train from New Street Station - you'll need to get off at Birmingham International for the airport and NEC.
