

Manchester City Hospitality 2019/20 Commonwealth Bar

Pep Guardiola's Manchester City once again lifted the cup in the 2018/19 campaign one year after becoming the first team in English football to reach 100 points in the league. The Etihad Stadium became a fortress, and Man City trounced many who came before them. Guardiola will be looking for much of the same for the 2019/20 season.

Named after the 2002 Commonwealth Games in Manchester, the Commonwealth Bar is ideal for groups and friends and/or colleagues to enjoy a more informal experience whilst watching the spectacular football that Manchester City play week in week out. Your Manchester City hospitality package includes fantastic VIP seats situated on the half way line offering you unrivalled views of the pitch. All of this is combined with food and drink available for purchase.
