Dress Code

The County Stand is our premier enclosure, and has a formal dress code of collared shirt, jacket and tie for men.

There is no formal dress code for ladies, however most choose to dress up for a day at the races - think wedding guest attire.

Lots of female racegoer do like to wear dresses, high heeled shoes together with hats or fascinators, however it's most important that you feel comfortable and enjoy your day!

Getting to York Racecourse

York train station is one mile from the track and both shuttle buses and taxis offer a good raceday service. For drivers there are signposts from all the major routes to the plentiful supply of free car parking on all of our racedays. For John Smith's Day and The Welcome to Yorkshire Ebor Festival, a special traffic plan will apply.

York

RACECOURSE

By Car

The recommended raceday route to the racecourse from all directions is via the A64 to the south of the racecourse. Please note, on racedays not all of the usual routes to the racecourse are accessible.

Please follow the yellow directional signs, and be aware that satellite navigation systems will not contain the traffic plan routes.

Car parking - There is a plentiful supply of free car parking on all of our racedays, vehicles can be left (at the Owner's risk) overnight and collected by 11am the following day.

By Rail

Fast and frequent trains run from London Kings Cross, taking as little as 1 hour 52 minutes. Direct trains running from Edinburgh, Manchester and Birmingham. York Station is a taxi, regular shuttle bus or a brisk walk to the racecourse.

By Shuttle Bus

The 197 Shuttle Bus service links York Railway Station to the Racecourse,

From York Station

The shuttle buses operate from Stand RJ opposite the Railway Station entrance between 11am and 1.00pm (between 4pm and 6pm for the evening Music Showcase).

From the Racecourse

The shuttle buses return to the Railway Station from Campleshon Road, next to the Racecourse entrance, from 4pm onwards. (From 8.30pm till approximately 10.30pm

By Coach

The coach and minibus drop off and collection area will be within the Coach 'C' park, which is off Bishopthorpe Road to the south of the Terry's Chocolate factory building.

Drivers should approach York Racecourse from the A64 junction, via right past York College, proceed via Bishopthorpe Village and then to the Coach park off Bishopthorpe Road.

The new drop off and collection area will be clearly signposted from both the north and south of the course and our partner traffic management company will be on hand throughout every raceday, to provide direction to drivers.

Working with North Yorkshire Police and City of York Council, coaches and minibuses will not be allowed to stop on Bishopthorpe Road, Campleshon Road, Knavesmire Road or outside the Terry's factory, to drop off or collect racegoers.
